Public Appearances

Craig Nevil, Marc Kirkpatrick and Jeff Schafer gave a presentation for a Proposed Community Garden located behind the Senior Center on Third Street located on city property. He said the area would be 200' deep by 150' wide. He anticipates some raised beds and areas for wheelchair access. He said there would be no permanent structures there. Marc Kirkpatrick, representing Rotary, requested permission to use city property for the garden and also inquired about water service. Jim Leonhard said there is a four inch main that runs along the football field that could be utilized.

Council voiced concerns about the location of the garden and the football field. Mr. Kirkpatrick said they will provide updates as the project progresses.
